Each week, the class with the best attendance will get the "Attendance Panda" in their room for the week. Last week's winning class was Grade PK again!

CMS Snail Shell Treasure Hunt

To continue promoting awareness of invasive snails in Washington Pond and to spark community engagement, the Washington Lakes Watershed Association has hidden hand-painted Chinese Mystery Snail (CMS) shells throughout the Washington community!

Keep your eyes peeled while you're out and about. If you find one of these specially marked shells, be sure to look for the hidden message inside to claim a special treat.

Happy hunting, and thank you for helping us keep our watershed healthy!
