Principal's Remarks

Special School gets a Special Delivery from Special People!!!!

It's hard to believe colder weather is on its way given higher than normal recent temperatures, but we know Maine and we know what's coming. I wanted the entire school community to know that thanks to Jay Feyler and his staff at the Union Town Office, 35 bags of winter clothing necessities were delivered to UES this week!!! The items are high quality and we plan to distribute several bags to families in the near future. We also plan to hold on to a few extra bags for those who may need a little support down the road. Each bag contains: boots, snow pants, heavy winter coat, sneakers, hats, gloves, sweatpants, socks, and more. We were able to get a range of sizes as well! This donation represents one of many examples of the benefits of living in a small town. People take care of each other and pay it forward exponentially.

I like UES because I get to be with my friends.

A couple of my favorite books include: I Survived and Dog Man.

My favorite show is Odd Balls, it's an animated Series.

My favorite singers include: Myles Smith

My favorite foods include: pizza and chicken burgers

My hobbies include: drawing and carving pumpkins.

When I grow up I want to be a person who helps the homeless.

A pet peeves of mine is when people hum on the bus.

When I grow up I'd like to live in Florida.

Understanding Fairness

Fairness "Take-a-ways"

1. Play by the rules (Gaga ball, Phys Ed games)
2. Fairness does not mean everything is equal. It means everyone gets what they need.
3. Life isn't always fair. The sooner you come to understand this, the better off you will be.
4. Importance of taking turns
5. Choosing fair teams - not stacking older students vs. younger students.
6. Not having favorites. Giving other people a chance.

Understanding Kindness

1. Comes from the heart.
2. When you see someone who needs help, you help.
3. One way to tell if you are kind is ask yourself, "Do you think of other people's needs before your own?"
 - a. If there are three people behind you in line and there are three cookies left, do you take one or do you move ahead and leave one for each of the people behind you?
 - b. Do you race to get to the front of the line for something fun or do you let others go ahead of you?
 - c. When you are working in a group and your team is trying to make a decision, do you steamroll your opinion to try and get your way or do you give everyone a chance to be heard and can you agree on a different name?
 - d. Can you agree to disagree or do you throw a fit or carry a grudge when you don't get your way?
4. How do you behave when nobody is watching???? That reveals what kind of person you are!
